

Job Title: Quality Assurance Engineer

Job Description:

- To investigate and identify the feasibility of requested new products and inform the relevant departments in this regard.
- To ensure preparation of customer specifications and their delivery to related departments.
- To manage quality technicians.
- To ensure quality controls are made as prescribed in the control plans and / or customer specifications.
- To ensure the approval of products that comply with customer specifications.
- In case of non-compliance, to stop production (if necessary) and ensure that the necessary corrective actions are initiated.
- To ensure that quality controls are completed within the prescribed time and prepare required reports.
- To participate in internal and external quality audits.
- To manage the process of customer complaints and returns.
- To do the necessary work about calibration of quality devices and equipment.

Qualifications:

- To be graduated from engineering or other technical departments of universities
- To have the appropriate medical report